> Public Missiles is proud to announce June, 1999 introduction of an all-new > kit, expanding our line of smaller versions of PML favorites, the

- > Harpoon missiles (as well as ten 4" diameter Seawolf and thirty 4"
- diameter
- > "enemy" missiles) for a British documentary called "British Navy In
- Action".
- > The Harpoons were fired off a British Navy ship on 75mm Aerotech M1315's,
- > and the captain said he could not tell the difference between the PML
