Though maybe this should be labeled PML News Volume "1a", here's some new PML information. 11 new dealers have agreed to participate in our 15% off Christmas sale (which was Volume 1). They are listed in the attachment and clearly indicated as the new dealers.

I was going to distribute just the new dealer information, but since some people have signed up for the PML News distribution after the original sale flyer went out, I thought it best just to repost the original with revisions. It's still a small file size, anyway. Remember, the sale ends December 15.

Give 'em a PML Gift Certificate, and they can choose what they want themselves! Our Gift Certificates are always available, but Christmastime is a great time to give them!
